Comments: This rule was amended both to correct the IRS address and to provide the addresses of the U.S. Attorney's Offices, to assist with service. It was also amended to remove the suggestion that this Standing Order would continue to serve as the "Register of Addresses" the clerk is required to maintain. Because of changes in Fed. R. Bankr. P. 5003, the potential exists for the clerk to receive addresses from dozens of taxing entities. As a result, it is no longer practical or feasible to maintain the registry in the text of this Standing Order.
